THIS YEAR'S SYMPOSIUM IS DEDICATED TO ALICE HAYES AND TO BILL RICE

Alice May (Jones) Hayes was a loyal and devoted friend and employee who loved the Sovereignty Symposium. For nearly 25 years, she worked at the State of Oklahoma Administrative Office of the Courts where she served as Deputy Chief Financial Officer. Alice was presented with the Friend of the Court medal on behalf of the Oklahoma Supreme Court in honor of Alice's many years of service to the Court, the AOC and The Sovereignty Symposium. She was married to Curtis Lawrence Hayes and they had one daughter, Taylor Paige Hayes. Alice ended her fight against breast cancer on May 23, 2015.

G. William "Bill" Rice, an attorney, University of Tulsa law professor and widely hailed expert on American Indian legal matters who worked to further the rights of indigenous peoples worldwide died Sunday, May 1, 2016. He was a member of the Tahlequah-based United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians, a former assistant chief of the tribe and tribal court judge, and for nearly 30 years he was chief justice for the Citizen Potawatomi Nation. He also served as attorney general for the Sac and Fox Nation. Bill Rice was a constant presence at The Sovereignty Symposium.
